

Cullman County Community Service Seal

Beginning with the Class of 2012, Cullman County graduating seniors may have the Community Service Seal affixed to their diplomas if they have fulfilled the designated number of hours in service to their communities. The purpose of this initiative is to encourage students to help others in their communities as well as to instill in them the desire to continue this service for a lifetime.

The number of hours required for this recognition will be phased in according to class placement:

Class of 2012	25 hours
Class of 2013	50 hours
Class of 2014	75 hours
Class of 2015 (and all classes thereafter)	100 hours

Students must participate in service activities in a variety of settings with students volunteering in at least three different organizations (examples include schools, hospitals, religious organizations, registered non-profit organizations, etc.).

All community service activities must be documented on the Community Service Activity Log and must be signed by the adult supervising member of the organization. The title and contact information for the supervisor should also be listed for verification purposes. Supervisors may not be members of the student's immediate family.
