

Where can ACT WorkKeys® take you?

You have skills beyond academics that employers want. On your ACT WorkKeys assessments, you have the chance to show off these skills and earn an ACT WorkKeys National Career Readiness Certificate® (NCRC) that will show employers you can succeed in the workplace.

Try your best on your ACT WorkKeys assessments to get the most value out of your results. With your results, you can:

Interact with employers in Alabama and around the country looking for candidates with your skills.

Verify your skills and make your qualifications public.

Increase your employability and income.

Learn where you'll need to improve.

Explore career fields to find one that fits with your skills.
